1. The Bulgarian Delegation of the special mixed Bulgar-Rumanian Commission was headed by Dr. Kalburov, Assistant Minister, and included Mladen Angelov and Ivan Mitov, engineer-experts. The Rumanian Delegation was headed by the Secretary-General of the Rumanian Ministry of Commerce.
2. All details were agreed to concerning the transmission of current from the Bulgarian power station at Ruse by a cable in a pipe-line under the bed of the Danube.
3. Two other link stations were also to be created, and two reserve cables laid in order to render possible a great increase later on in the supply of current from one country to the other.
4. This cable in the pipe-line should be functioning by 1 November 1948. Bucharest is to be supplied by three Rumanian power stations of a total capacity of 116,000 kilowatts, and on the Rumanian side of the Danube all preparations are completed and the pipe-line is ready to receive the cable. due in September.
5. A pipe-line is now under construction between Ruse and Razgrad, and two auxiliary power stations are under construction at Ruse and Razgrad.
